

National Nursing Conference 2022 (online)

Conference Overview

The National Nursing Conference 2022 is online and will explore the future of the nursing workforce. Through live workshops, panel discussions and expert analysis the Conference will examine the next steps in supporting workforce recruitment and retention, how health, safety and wellbeing can be enhanced for nursing staff and how nursing practice will be transformed in the long term following the Covid-19 pandemic.

What to Expect:

- Updates and guidance from the Royal College of Nursing, APPG for Health, and the Nuffield Trust
- Best practice case study examples and practical guidance on effectively supporting your nursing workforce
- Interactive discussions with leading experts on recruitment and retention and wellbeing support
- Networking and discussion with colleagues within and supporting the NHS nursing workforce

Here is the full agenda

Conference details

Venue	Date	Time
Online	28 th September 2022	9:00am – 1:00pm
Online	29 th September 2022	9:00am – 1:00pm

To register your interest in this course please complete this form

Please note we are only taking expressions of interest at this time and completing this form does not register you a conference place. We will contact you will further information in due course.